Cause UK Public Relations is committed to preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in all its forms. We have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and we are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships.

Our Anti-Modern Slavery Policy sets out our commitment to preventing slavery and human trafficking and the steps we take to ensure that modern slavery does not take place in our business or supply chains.

Our Policy is based on the following principles:

1. We will not knowingly support or do business with any individual or organization involved in modern slavery.
2. We will ensure that our employees, suppliers and contractors are aware of our anti-modern slavery policy and our expectations of them.
3. We will conduct due diligence on our supply chains to assess the risk of modern slavery and take appropriate steps to address any issues identified.
4. We will provide training to our employees to ensure they understand the risks of modern slavery and are able to identify and report any concerns.
5. We will investigate any reports of modern slavery and take appropriate action to address any issues identified.
6. We will work with our suppliers and contractors to ensure that they have appropriate policies and procedures in place to prevent modern slavery in their own businesses and supply chains.

We believe that by working together, we can prevent modern slavery and human trafficking in all its forms.
